

Portability Options

- 1 The borrower may, when not in default, and upon a bona fide arm's length sale of the property charged hereunder and the purchase of another property, apply for approval to transfer this mortgage as a charge of the same priority and of the same amount to the new property. The closing date of the two sales must be the same. In most cases, an arm's length sale is one where the buyer and seller are unrelated and have no personal or business relationship with each other. The existing borrower and the new property must both qualify under the lender's underwriting policies, criteria, procedures and documentation requirements and those of any insurer, if applicable, in effect at the time of application. The borrower will be required to pay the port application fee, title insurance processing fee, appraisal fee and insurance premiums, if any, and all other fees and prepayment compensation that may be associated with the granting of the approval to port. Prepayment Policies

- 1 The following privileges may be used in the same year.

The exercising of either privilege will not affect any of the borrower's obligations under this mortgage including the continuing regular loan payments as to amount or due date.

Privileges are not cumulative and may not be carried over from one year to the next.

(a) PARTIAL PREPAYMENT

The borrower, when not in default, may prepay partial amounts of principal, without payment of compensation to the lender, on any payment date. Such partial payments must each be a minimum amount of $ 100.00, and total no more than 20% of the original principal amount of this mortgage during each year. This privilege is only available if this mortgage is continuing in force and is not applicable in part to any prepayment in full of this mortgage. Any unused partial prepayment privilege will not reduce the compensation payable on any prepayment in full of this mortgage. This privilege may not be used in the 31 days prior to a prepayment in full of this mortgage.

(b) PAYMENT INCREASE

The borrower, when not in default, shall have the privilege of increasing the then regular loan payment on account of principal and interest, in an amount not to exceed 20% thereof, or reducing the aforesaid increased payment by an amount up to but not exceeding 20%, once during any year. It is understood that the principal and interest portion of the regular loan payment may never be less than the original principal and interest amount.

- 2 The Borrower may prepay this mortgage in full at any time upon a compensation payment to the Lender of an amount equal to the greater of:

(a) three (3) months interest calculated by the Lender on the remaining balance and at the interest rate set out in the mortgage form or last renewal, conversion or amendment thereto; or

(b) the interest rate differential (IRD) calculation for the remaining term of this mortgage. The IRD is the amount of money the Lender requires, on the prepayment date, to compensate the Lender for the loss of interest income which results from a lower rate of interest on a replacing loan for the remainder of the term. The remainder of the term is the length of time from the payment due date of the last full loan payment made under this mortgage to the maturity date of this mortgage. The IRD is calculated by determining the difference between the mortgage rate in effect, at the time this mortgage was given or last renewed, converted or amended, and the Lender's posted rate in effect at the time such IRD calculation is made for the term closest to the remaining term, as determined by the Lender. The difference in these two rates is used to calculate the loss of interest income. The posted rate is that the Lender publishes on its web site and identifies as the rate for this mortgage product.

If the term of this mortgage is longer than five (5) years and the prepayment is made after the fifth (5th) anniversary date then the compensation payment is limited to three (3) months interest only as set out in (a). (Applicant)
