

Speaker 1 is Natashia, these are some of the transcripts from the argument she started while I was at home sick from work, on the couch. Event took place April 25th at 4:22 pm. This was after she made it clear I was to only communicate to her lawyer.

[Speaker 1]

So when are you leaving the house? You not want to sell the house. Do you want to pay me to live here? Like what is the deal?

[Speaker 2]

You can't legally charge me rent.

[Speaker 1]

Then you need to go so I can sell the house. No.

[Speaker 2]

Once we have assigned agreements. No, that's what

[Speaker 1]

You're not understanding is that I'm on the hook for all the bills and you think you're entitled to half but you're not willing to pay anything. Nothing not a penny,

[Speaker 2]

You can't. I can't because of the position you put me in. No, no, I'm not leaving it. We have a side agreement. I told your lawyer that

[Speaker 3]

You can't

[Speaker 2]

You can't bully me into anything.

[Speaker 1]

This is not about bullying, it's this don't, you understand? There is no money. I have nothing to give you because I've been paying all of the bills on my own including yours. If you

[Speaker 2]

If you actually read the offer, you don't have to give me any money right away. Actually,

[Speaker 1]

I read the offer and you want 80 000 from me before we split the net. That's ridiculous.

[Speaker 2]

No, not at all.

[Speaker 1]

Yeah, it is. You also are quite delusional in the amount of money that you think, small, kitchen, appliances cost because a 80% of those were gifted to me that I didn't pay for Meanwhile, you didn't include anything in that. Offer about bringing me back. The snowblower that I paid for. I

[Speaker 2]

Didn't I never took anything from here. Do you see? I don't have the money to

[Speaker 1]

Interesting that the snowblower and the wood chipper that your mom led.

[Speaker 2]

I do not have the money to take anything.

[Speaker 1]

So they didn't come pick that up. I

[Speaker 2]

Didn't take anything from this property, the TV would be gone. The couch would be gone stuff. Would be gone.

[Speaker 1]

Is that stuff going on the garage?

[Speaker 2]

I thought you took it. No. You've taken everything else.

[Speaker 1]

What I was 100. Sure was mine.

[Speaker 2]

According to you, yes. He was keeping anyway.

[Speaker 1]

To leave the house. I'm not going to sign this agreement because like my lawyer told you, that is not a good agreement. You're also trying to leave it open-ended for yourself.

[Speaker 2]

I you the position that you put me in

[Speaker 1]

Get legal aid. Then, if you can't, I

[Speaker 2]

Can't.

[Speaker 1]

You'd be why? Because you make too much.

[Speaker 2]

No, we don't have children.

[Speaker 1]

You can get legal.

[Speaker 2]

No, we no, I tried.

[Speaker 1]

Then why would she include that in the bottom of the letter?

[Speaker 2]

What letter

[Speaker 1]
The letter that my lawyer gave to you

[Speaker 2]
Which one?

[Speaker 1]
No

[Speaker 2]
I can't I called them I had an appointment set up with a lawyer.

[Speaker 3]
But

[Speaker 1]
Then if you want two lime, if you want me to be more agreeable, if you want to have an offer, get out of the house. No, I can clean it and sell it.

[Speaker 2]
Nope, I am not moving out of my house until we have a signed offer. You legally cannot do that. No, but

[Speaker 1]
I can take you to court and I

[Speaker 2]
Get, I've already have the paperwork filled out. We could arrange that for all your charges and everything to bring you to court.

[Speaker 1]
You make a lot of assumptions here that you know you're trying to say that you're not trying to ruin my life but and you're trying to

[Speaker 2]
Ruin mine. No, I'm

[Speaker 1]
Not. I'm trying to separate from you and I'm trying to pay you what I owe you? That's how negotiations work

[Speaker 2]
Dude, send me a camera offer then

[Speaker 1]
Lose something about it, and it

[Speaker 2]
Better be more fair than the first one.

[Speaker 1]
Fair, in your opinion, in my opinion, that's not fair. Because I've been covering 100 of the load

[Speaker 2]
Fine. If we can't agree. Let's go to court.

[Speaker 1]
So when are you moving out

[Speaker 2]
Once there's a signed agreement

[Speaker 1]
Where to work from here because you can't afford gas, so you can move somewhere closer to the city.

[Speaker 2]
No, I'll be right here.

[Speaker 1]
I

[Speaker 2]
Don't. I would make more money if I was on EI right now.

[Speaker 4]
So that's your plan.

[Speaker 2]
No, that's not my plan at all. No, it's not my plan at all. I've been sick the last couple of days. Like what do you want me to do?

[Speaker 1]
These dragons are just curiosities and not the beasts that brought the whole world to heal

[Speaker 4]
Because we have been told as much anyways.

[Speaker 2]
So is that is that what you want to do?

[Speaker 4]
Sling of the King on Master's amount when she knows nothing.

[Speaker 1]
Being council. I don't have a Warfare agreement for you. If you want to negotiate spousal support, I'm willing to negotiate that when you leave the house

[Speaker 2]
Because if

[Speaker 1]
I can't sell the house, I don't have any money to give you. I'm not leaving. I'm not going to commit to a certain amount of money, when I don't know what the house is going to sell for. The house was last appraised to us at like mid five. So I don't know what it's going to sell for who. So leave the house and make some money.

[Speaker 2]
No I'm not. I'm not letting you bully me into leaving?

[Speaker 1]
Yes, it is.

[Speaker 2]
You're

[Speaker 1]
Professional thing. No,
