Or deliver them in person to the Service Canada Centre where you live <http://www.servicecanada.gc.ca/tb-sc-fsco/sc-srchpc.jsp?lang=eng&pc=K0C1G0>

Additional Notes

If you submitted any other documents while completing your application, you can view them in My Service Canada Account. Keep the original documents for 6 years in case we need them.

If you have applied for Regular benefits you may be sent a notice requiring you to attend a group information session.

To prove your eligibility and receive any payment you may be entitled to, you are required to complete bi-weekly reports. Failure to do so may result in a loss of entitlement and payment.

Please be advised that you will be contacted by an Ontario Ministry of Labour, Immigration, Training and Skills Development funded employment services agency for the purpose of helping you get back to work. You will be contacted in approximately two weeks by phone, e-mail or mail using the contact information provided in your EI application.

The employment services agency will provide you with information about free employment programs and services available in your community that can help you return to work. After contacting you, the agency is required to report to Service Canada about your contact with them and their employment programs and services.

Accessing these services could be one of the ways you demonstrate to Service Canada your efforts to meet the eligibility criteria to receive and continue to receive EI benefits.

What's next?

- We will mail you a Benefit statement indicating your Access Code. Access the Instructions on how to complete your reports with our Internet Reporting Service or our Telephone Reporting Service.
- If you had an EI claim within the last month, you will not receive a new Access Code in the mail. You can use the same Access Code that you previously used to complete your bi-weekly reports and access your EI claim information.
- After you apply for EI benefits, you must start completing bi-weekly reports using the Internet or Telephone Reporting Service as soon as you receive your Access Code in the mail. If you are eligible for benefits, no payments can be issued to you until you have submitted bi-weekly reports.
